VOLUME 20

CORPUS CHRISTI, TEXAS, SATURDAY, JULY 27, 1918

NUMBER 208

OUR VOTE is your certificate of interest in your country. War against Germany is the supreme issue. There is a portion of Germany that is far from the Rhine. Clean government is good government. Good government is open-minded. Oppression abroad is not more hateful than oppression at home. Oppression abroad is not more dangerous than oppression at home. The liberty of political conviction is dear to American hearts. The safety of the Nation depends upon the fearless interest of the individual. The right of self-assertion is denied by the man who boasts of his ability to cast the votes of others. The privilege of self-assertion is necessary to the progressive conduct of government. Are you a slave, to be bowed down beneath the weight of machinery? Are you a dog, to be driven by the lash? Or are you a citizen imbued with love of country and eager determination? Your vote is your answer. You know the men who seek favor at your hands. You know the magnitude of the duty which confronts you. You know the price of inaction. As the sun dawns, the new day is at hand. The new day is without blemish. It is yours to do with as you will. Take it; break it. The choice
